

Yesssss, I know, I am late!! It has been a very busy Fall, plus we were cruising in November, which you will eventually see. Plus, I am moving slower, also?! So here we are in the Halloween month! I thought I would give you a look at my favorite City for Halloween, Conway of course! All trees on the Main Street through Conway were decorated with pumpkins!! Had to show you this. The next pictures will show a visit to the Farm, which belongs to the Horry County Museum, where there was a demonstration on how dyeing fabric was accomplished years ago. We were actually able to participate. Then the remaining pictures on page 2 are of the annual “Falktoberfest” at our local Chiropractor’s office.

Wild Turkeys visited us for Halloween!!!

Happy Halloween!!!!

Well, despite the dark cloud of “covid-19” and the damp weather, I think we had some smiles, laughs and good times so far, and that is the way it should be to keep ourselves above the clouds!! We are so glad that Dr Falk had his ‘Falktoberfest’ which we always attend and enjoy. We also enjoy being with our neighbors and friends, as always!

Dr Falk talking to those of us who have come to his October party!

Yes, my Bob is getting a sample massage, from Susan! She gives a great massage! I get one regularly!

Even with the wet weather this year, participation was very good.

You are probably wondering if I won anything and the answer is yes, a meal at a local restaurant, The Crafty Rooster.

Two of our neighbors across the street, Jean and Marge, heading a Halloween activity. Jean is dressed in her costume!
