

Not Much Going On!

There was not much going on in the way of excitement during the month of January. We stayed pretty much around the house, just going out for an occasional lunch or two. Of course, we did have some of our museum visits, but that was about it. The highlight of the month was definitely the “Blizzard of 2022”

Some might not think much of it - but this is by far the most snow we have since moving here full-time in April of 2012.

PS - sorry for the tardiness!
